The rooftop landscape of Graz is special, and the same can be said of the aiola upstairs. The view it offers is intoxicating, and the surrounding area is a sea of fragrances and flowers. Up high (it takes only two minutes by lift from Schlossbergplatz), the day starts with a milky coffee and the morning sun. At noon, the glass walls disappear into the floor – so it is total open air. In the evenings, the candlelight and moonlight create a magical atmosphere.
