GENERAL INFORMATION ON GRAZ AS A CONFERENCE DESTINATION, WHAT MAKES IT SPECIAL AND HOW TO GET HERE.

Island in the river Mur, Graz

REASON ENOUGH TO KEEP COMING BACK TO GRAZ.

The beautiful historic city centre, the flair of art and design and versatile event venues make any conference stay in Graz a positive experience.

Graz – Austria's second largest city

MEETING IN GRAZ – DELIGHT INCLUDED

There's no doubt about it: Graz is a beautiful city and a great place to live. It was 20 years ago that Graz sparkled as European Cultural Capital City and that year had enduring effects on the city – it still bears the trendy title of “City of Design”. The historic city centre of Graz is listed as UNESCO World Cultural Heritage and Graz is Austria's only Capital of Delight. Graz is the second largest city in Austria. Both historical and modern conference centres are available – depending on preference and capacity, but all featuring up-to-date technical equipment of course.

EVERYTHING YOU NEED AND NOT TOO LARGE

Graz is also an important university town and a significant centre of research and commerce – this is very much valued by those staging scientific conferences. Yet Graz also has an evident kind of cheerfulness. Most of its outstanding hotels are within easy walking distance of the congress centres and the beautiful, lively historic city centre. People are easy-going, with a zest for life, and eager to please their guests. The cultural programme is full of variety, eclectic and often surprising. In Graz you can expect contrasts. So it is that contemporary art and architecture bring excitement to city life just as much as Graz Opera House, the theatre and a large number of classical and modern festivals.

Medical University of Graz

THE ADVANTAGES OF THE CITY COMBINED WITH EXCURSIONS IN THE REGION

Right by the city, Styria can fulfil the dreams of inquisitive epicures, those in pursuit of wellness and lovers of golf, spiring you away to enchanting landscapes. Styrian wine country is one of the most beautiful and productive regions in Austria, also featuring castles and palaces, hot thermal spas and the wild and romantic Graz hill country, inviting you to a wide choice of excursions. Naturally, in the Graz Region there's no shortage of culinary delights – try for yourself.
